AMP capital notes offer opens

AMP capital notes (capital notes) offer opens today for clients of syndicate brokers, eligible securityholders and members of the general public who are resident in Australia.

As announced on 29 October 2015, the size of the offer has increased to at least A$230 million from A$200 million and the margin determined under the bookbuild process is 5.10 per cent per annum over the bank bill rate.

The final size of the offer will depend on the volume of applications received and accepted under the securityholder offer and the general offer. AMP retains the right to scale-back applications.

The offer of capital notes is made in the replacement prospectus, lodged with ASIC and the ASX today.

Interested investors will be able to access the prospectus online at ampcapitalnotes.com.au or by requesting a prospectus by calling the numbers set out below. Anyone wishing to apply for capital notes will need to complete an application form attached to or accompanying the replacement prospectus.

There are risks associated with an investment in capital notes and investors should read the prospectus in full before deciding to invest. Potential investors should also consider obtaining guidance from their financial adviser or other professional adviser before deciding whether to invest.
